Marienburg Riesling Raffes

From predominantly ungrafted vines on gray slate, the 2015 Pündericher Marienburg Riesling Raffes offers a fascinating bouquet of pure slate with peppery and lemon grass aromas. This is a great dry Mosel Riesling coming from the best part of the Falkenlay terroir of the Pündericher Marienburg. What intensity and finesse! The 2015 will be released in September 2017.

2015 Clemens Busch Pündericher
Marienburg Riesling Spätlese Gold
Capsule

Sourced from different sites of the domaine, the 2015 Pündericher Marienburg Riesling Spätlese Gold Capsule normally has more botrytis, but since there was almost noble rot in 2015 this is a selection of over-ripe grapes. On the palate, this is a very precise, piquant and racy Riesling with ripe and lush fruit and still (too) pronounced acidity.

Herbal flavors and stewed fruit aromas dominate the super clear and stony bouquet of the 2014 Pündericher Marienburg Riesling Rothenpfad Reserve. Aged for two years on its lees and bottled in October 2016 just two weeks before I tasted it, this is a full-bodied, rich and silky textured Riesling with very concentrated, viscous fruit, great purity and elegance. A very promising but also enjoyable Reserve.
